

What Is a Circle and What Is the Unit?

Circles are small, intimate groups that meet monthly for fellowship and study. Every member of a Circle is also a member of the Unit. The Unit meets monthly for fellowship, a program, and to conduct business. A local group is called a "Unit" because the United Methodist Church is a connectional church. Each group is connected to the whole, which includes district, conference, jurisdiction, and national organizations.

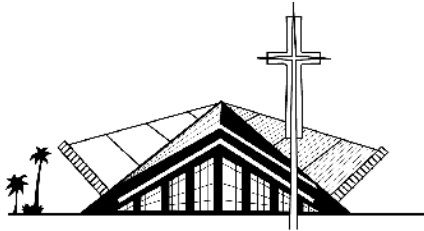

How Can You Become a Member?

Anyone may join the UMW through participation in Unit meetings, Circles, study, giving, prayer, action, or service.
